

Montreal's Golden Square Mile Tourism Development Society is proud to welcome the MIAFF August 17th to 20th, 2017

Montréal, August 17, 2017 – The Golden Square Mile Tourism Development Society (Golden Montréal) is proud to welcome the 4th edition of the Montreal International Animation Film Festival (MIAFF) to the neighborhood.

We also welcome the numerous speakers, filmmakers and panelist from the animation industry converging in the Golden Square Mile August 17th to 20th. A festival of discovery, MIAFF will be presenting the finest gems in animation at the McCord Museum and the Moyses Hall at McGill University.

The Montreal International Animation Film Festival's conference will be hosting leading experts and emerging talent and content creators in animation film and technology, facilitating networking opportunities, panels, masterclasses and interdisciplinary creative partnerships across industries and sectors.

2017 is a breakthrough year with over 40 countries participating and a well-represented cross section of filmmakers. Past speakers have included Oscar winner Co Hoedeman, Disney alum Mike Weisman and British-Canadian director 3 times Academy Award Gerald Potterton.

For complete schedule and to participate, go to www.animazefestival.com.

The Golden Square Mile Tourism Development Society (Golden Montréal) was launched in February 2016 to promote tourism attractions and to amplify Golden Square Mile's position as a downtown Montreal destination, with a focus on eight key experiences: architecture, art, business meetings, education, fashion, history, hospitality and wellness.

Prestigious hotels, delectable restaurants, renowned universities, and an array of remarkable shops, art galleries, museums, parks, monuments, and other attractions all contribute to the Golden Square Mile's charm. The Golden Square Mile Tourism Development Society invites you to discover, or rediscover, this unique Montreal destination.
